AIR TOOL SERVICE COMPANY, et al.)	TO APPEAR TELEPHONICALLY AT

Plaintiffs move the Court for counsel and party representative to appear telephonically at the case management conference.

With respect to the party representative, Plaintiffs' corporate representatives are located in New York. As with the motion filed by Defendants, it would be a burden for the corporate representative to attend when they can participate meaningfully by phone.

With respect to counsel, counsel will, of course, attend the case management conference in person if the Court prefers. However, undersigned counsel, Brian Muething, is teaching business law at Miami University on an adjunct basis this spring. The class meets on Monday evenings only and it might not be possible to travel from Cleveland to Oxford in sufficient time. So as to meet this commitment, counsel would prefer to appear by phone, particularly given that a phone connection will be needed for Mr. Snyder. To reiterate, though, should the Court prefer attendance in person, counsel will make sufficient arrangements.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs request an order permitting counsel and the party representative to appear at the case management conference by phone.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Brian P. Muething
